Sidney, Maine

January 2021

I have lived in Sidney, ME for 46 years. I moved to Maine from Boston when I married my husband, Wally, who was a Maniac. He was born in Maine and got a job as an Assistant Attorney General for the state of Maine after finishing law school in Boston. I taught school in Skowhegan and Oakland , ME for many years while raising our two children.

I love the people and the beauty that surround us here in the Belgrade Lakes region. The slower pace of life in Maine is so important to me.

I plan to attend our 60th reunion. Let's hope it will be safe enough to have one at that time! I am trying to convince Sandee Garihan and Karen McKee Yama to join me.

I appreciate all of you loyal classmates who work so hard to keep us connected!
