

November 2021

Marge Guidon Fitzgerald
Sellersville, Pennsylvania

I still live in Sellersville

I moved here right after I graduated from Penn State in 1966

My first husband lived here and I moved into the area. Sellersville is a small community bordered by Perkasie. It is close to the Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia.

We have a lovely theater which I attend often- Sellersville Theater. I also volunteer there.

I also volunteer at Musikfest and Arts Quest. I've done that for 27 yrs.

I play tennis here in Quakertown.

I work at Grand View Hospital

Sellersville differs from Bethlehem in that it is a small community with a lot of open space. Bucks County is the place to be.

I plan on attending the 60th reunion

I am also an Adjunct professor at Montgomery Community College teaching Nutrition