Chris Zettlemyer

Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania

After law school, I took a job with the Commonwealth and we moved to Harrisburg. In 1970 I went into private practice. A year later we relocated to Mechanicsburg (a suburb of Harrisburg) and, although we moved once since then, we have had a Mechanicsburg address to date. We like the community, the people and recreational opportunities close by, and the school district where our 3 boys were educated. This has become our home. Our boys' families live close by. We are undecided about attending the 60th reunion. You may reach Chris at czettlemo@gmail.com
